771 Miller Road, Parksville

Stunning, Spacious, Bright and Private are words that could describe your new home! This stunning, custom built home on half acre property leads to large grassy back yard, to little wooded pathway and straight to the banks of French Creek. All spacious rooms with vaulted ceilings, crown moldings and tons of huge windows provide an endless supply of bright, natural light and makes this home feel even larger. This hand crafted home boasts many special features: engineered hardwood flooring, 45,000 BTU, natural gas fireplace, in floor bathroom heating, grand granite kitchen island, quartz tiles in bathroom, separate shower and soaker tub, pantry, lots of storage, stainless steel appliances and only 9 years old. Your beautifully landscaped yard has in ground sprinkler system, gazebo, shed, quiet contemplation spaces, flowering trees/bushes and much more. Cute garage is easy to convert to a studio/suite, etc. Cozy up to the fireplace, coffee on your patio or relax by the flowing river.
