Imagine the changes this home witnessed since then? Imagine the lives who graced the door and how the walls have heard the laughter of children and anguished over lost dogs. This is what determines the character of a home. The life lived in it. Like some of our lives, there is need of some fixing up here. With some attention, this home can blossom like tulips in the spring. Grow your own herbs in the front yard and wave at your neighbours over the fence. Amenities are a short walk away. For a family, this home also offers a large back yard perfect for kids and dogs.
