Move-in ready with quick possession! Step into this bright, open concept condo to find newer flooring, fully freshly painted walls, and in-unit front loader washer and dryer. In the kitchen are brand new countertops with refinished cabinets that have been updated with brushed nickel hardware. Upon entering the living area, you will notice a cozy gas fireplace across from the sliding glass doors that lead out to your deck. The windows in both the living area and the two bedrooms feature new window coverings. This unit is part of a well taken care of complex, and sits at a great central location. Featuring nearby parks, and within close proximity to the new hospital, North Island College, and shopping centers. A storage locker measuring 3ft by 4ft is also included with the unit.
